Welcome to Veteran Directed Care!

A participant and/or employer has selected you as a potential employee. As an employee you will provide home and community based personal care services to the participant and/or employer. The participant and/or employer will direct the work you do, including hiring, firing, scheduling, training, supervising and managing your employment.

ARIS Solutions (ARIS), will serve as the Financial Management Service Provider on behalf of the participant and/or employer.

Overview of (Veteran Directed Care)

In this employment model, participants and/or employers select, hire, train, schedule, supervise and manage their own employees. The participant may elect to have a representative as their employer, this is a trusted friend or family member, who will help them manage their services. The employee is always an employee of either the participant or his/her representative employer.

ARIS is contracted to help with the administrative employer responsibilities.

ARIS Solutions(ARIS), is the Financial Management Service "FMS" Provider.

ARIS assists the participant/employer by:

- Assisting with initial employer/employee paperwork
- Performing background checks on potential employees
- Receiving timesheets from the employer
- Paying only those hours that are authorized in the participant's budget
- Paying employees, including withholding taxes and processing any other deductions
- Issuing Forms W-2 at year-end

PROGRAM INTEGRITY and FRAUD PREVENTION

Maintaining and improving program integrity is one of the most important aspects of the Veteran Directed Care Program. Program integrity including fraud prevention is critical to sustaining this program model. Participants, authorized representatives, and providers are vital to preventing fraud and maintaining program integrity.

Fraud and abuse with funds from the Veteran's Administration can cost billions of dollars each year, diverting funds that could otherwise be used for additional services or to assist more people that need care. As a participant, authorized representative, care provider or recipient of funds, you must comply with all State and Federal laws and prevent misuse or fraud of any funds within this programs. Honesty and integrity are expected of all who participate in the Veteran Directed Program. (Please refer to the New "Employer/Participant" Handbook for more detail on fraud within the Veteran Directed Care Program)

Definition

Fraud is defined as recklessly or purposefully making false statements or representations to obtain some benefit or payment that you would not be entitled to without those statements or facts. These acts may be committed either for the person's own benefit or for the benefit of someone else. In other words, fraud includes the obtaining of something of value through misrepresentation or concealment of facts.

Examples of Fraud and Abuse Include

- Submitting timesheets for services not actually provided
- Approving/authorizing hours that employees didn't actually work
- Recording more time or stating different times than you actually work
- Changing hours on a timesheet after it has been approved
- Not providing the services the participant needs
- Falsifying a worker's compensation claim
- Falsifying or misrepresentation on applications or documentation
- Billing for services while in the hospital or other care facility
- Submitting twice for the same service
- Requiring an employee to "share" their paycheck with the employer

Results

Fraud is a felony conviction that can lead to substantial penalties, including imprisonment up to ten years, or a fine of up to $1,000 or an amount equal to twice the amount of assistance or benefits wrongfully obtained, or both. If convicted of fraud you may be excluded for a minimum of five years from any employment with a program or facility that receives Medicaid funding.

REPORTING

If you suspect or know of fraud or abuse occurring, it is your duty and responsibility to report this immediately to the Area Agency on Aging and the Veteran's Administration. Or call ARIS Solutions at 866.970.3301 and the proper people will be contacted.

Background Checks Exclusions

Examples of Disqualifying Events as a Result of a Background Check would include:

1. A misdemeanor conviction against any individual that involves:
 - a. Physical or sexual assault;
 - b. Violence or exploitation;
 - c. Child pornography;
 - d. Threatening or reckless conduct;
 - e. Theft;
 - f. Fraud;
 - g. Driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
 - h. Any other conduct that represents evidence of behavior that could endanger the safety or well-being of an individual.
2. A conviction of a felony against an individual.
3. Additional factors considered in determining suitability may include, but not limited to:
 - a. Relevance of the crime to the position sought;
 - b. The nature of the work and/or activity to be performed;
 - c. Time elapsed since the conviction;
 - d. Age of the candidate at the time of the offense;
 - e. The number of offenses;
 - f. Whether the individual has pending charges;
 - g. Any relevant evidence of rehabilitation or lack thereof;
 - h. Any other relevant information, including information submitted by the individual or requested by the hiring authority.

HIPAA EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY PRIVACY INFORMATION AND AGREEMENT

SUMMARY OF HIPAA PRIVACY RULES FOR EMPLOYEES

The Department of Health and Human Services has adopted privacy regulations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). These "Privacy Rules" require most doctors, hospitals and health insurers ("Covered Entities") to develop procedures to limit the use and disclosure of patients' protected health information ("PHI") as well as notify patients of their rights with respect to such information.

In order to comply with the Privacy Rules, each Covered Entity must develop and implement its own privacy policy and procedures for the protection of PHI by April 14, 2003. However, in many ways, these policies will simply reflect the "best practices" for patient privacy and confidentiality with which all health care workers should already be familiar.

Privacy of Patient Information

Although temporary personnel are likely to encounter some variations among privacy policies at different Covered Entities, all the policies should permit them (with a few exceptions) to:

- Disclose PHI to the patient himself (or to a child's parent or guardian).
- PHI may also be disclosed to a person involved in the patient's care, such as an elderly patient's adult child or friend who is acting as interpreter, as long as the patient doesn't object.
- There are few exceptions, such as psychotherapy notes in some states.
- Disclose PHI in accordance with a written patient authorization.
- Use or disclose PHI for purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations.
- Treatment purposes: There are no restrictions on disclosures of PHI for purposes of treating a patient. Medical staff may freely discuss a patient's treatment among themselves.
- Other Purposes: However, disclosures of PHI for purposes of obtaining payment or for administering health care operations should be limited to the "minimum necessary" to accomplish the purpose. For example, although a hospital's billing office may inform a collection agency that "Patient X owes $Y to Doctor Z", it may not disclose the nature of treatment Patient X received.
- Disclose "general directory information" about the patient.
 - o A hospital may provide general information about a patient's status (excluding specific medical information) to telephone callers.
- Disclose PHI as required by law, or regarding potential victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, or to avoid a serious threat to health or safety.
 - o For example, a hospital may respond to a police inquiry by disclosing that is treated a patient for a gunshot wound, and a doctor or nurse may report an abused child to the proper authorities.

If you are asked to make any disclosures which violate these guidelines, or which do not seem to you like professional "best practices", you should contact ARIS Solutions/VDC Program.

(However, you should be aware that reasonably unavoidable disclosures which are "incidental" to permitted uses of PHI do not violate the Privacy Rules. For example, a hospital does not violate the Privacy Rules if a visitor improperly removes a covered or inward-facing patient chart from its holder and reads it, and a pharmacist may discreetly discuss a prescription with a customer at the pharmacy counter, even though other customers might overhear).

Fair Labor Standards Act Live-In Exemption

The United States Department of Labor (US DOL) and Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) requires household employers to pay employees overtime pay for hours worked over 40 hours per work week unless the employee qualifies for an exemption. Complete this form to notify F/EA if employee qualifies for the live-in exemption from overtime pay. You may also use this form to revoke the exemption when the employee no longer qualifies for the exemption. When there is any change in live-in status, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the F/EA.

1. Determine if Direct Care Worker (DCW) Qualifies for the Live-In Exemption from Overtime Pay

The live-in exemption:

- Available only in programs where the Participant or their representative is the sole employer under the FLSA;
- Applies only to the employer/DCW pair based on the "Residency Test" (below); and
- Applies to all services provided by the DCW for that Participant.

Residency Test

A live-in DCW is exempt from overtime premium pay if the DCW "...resides on the employer's premises either permanently or for extended periods of time". "Employer's premises" means the household where employed. "Permanently", or "...extended periods of time" means the DCW lives, works, and sleeps in the household where employed for at least five (5) days a week (120 hours) or more.

2. Certify the DCW's Eligibility for the Live-In Exemption from Overtime Pay

Please check one box below to identify whether the DCW qualifies for the live-in exemption.

- ☐ Yes, the DCW qualifies for the live-in exemption.
- ☐ No, the DCW does NOT qualify for the live-in exemption.

If the DCW qualifies for the live-in exemption:

- All hours, including overtime (over 40 hours per work week), will be paid at regular rates for all services provided

Employee/Payee Instructions

Purpose: Complete Form W-4ME so your employer/payer can withhold the correct Maine income tax from your pay. Because your tax situation may change, you may want to recalculate your withholding each year.

Line 4. If you qualify for one of the Maine exemptions from withholding, complete lines 1, 2, 3 and 6, and sign the form. Otherwise, complete the Personal Allowances worksheet above. You may claim fewer allowances than you are entitled to, but you must file a Personal Withholding Allowance Variance Certificate to obtain permission from the State Tax Assessor if you want to claim more allowances than allowed on line E above.

Box 3. Select the marital status that applies to you. You must select the same marital status you selected on your federal Form W-4, except that married individuals have the option of withholding at the higher single rate and if you selected married filing separately on your federal Form W-4, you should select single. Nonresident aliens are required to check the single box regardless of actual marital status.

Line 6. Exemptions from withholding:

Line 6a. You may check this box if you claimed "Exempt" on your federal Form W-4. Do not check this box if you want Maine income taxes withheld even though you are exempt from federal withholding.

Line 6b. You may check this box if you completed federal Form W-4P and put a check in the box on line 1. Do not check this box if you want Maine income taxes withheld even though you are exempt from federal withholding.

Line 6c. You may elect this exemption if you are a resident employee receiving wages and you meet both of the following conditions:

1. You had no Maine income tax liability last year, and
2. You reasonably expect to have no Maine income tax liability this year.

This exemption will expire at the end of the year and you must complete a new Form W-4ME for next year or you will be subject to Maine withholding at the maximum rate.

Line 6d. You may elect this exemption if you receive periodic retirement payments pursuant to IRC § 3405, you had no Maine income tax liability in the prior year and you reasonably expect you will have no Maine income tax liability this year. This election will remain in effect until you complete a new Form W-4ME.

Line 6e. If you are the spouse of a member of the military, you may claim exemption from Maine withholding if you meet the following requirements:

1. Your spouse is a member of the military located in Maine in compliance with military orders.
2. You are in Maine solely to be with your spouse.
3. You and your spouse have the same domicile in a state other than Maine.
4. You attach a copy of your spouse's latest Leave and Earning Statement reflecting an assignment location in Maine.

5. You present your military ID to your employer. The ID must identify you as a military spouse.

Your exemption will expire at the end of the calendar year during which you submit Form W-4ME claiming the exemption, at which time you must complete and submit a new Maine Form W-4ME for the new year.

Note: You may be subject to penalty if you do not have sufficient withholding to meet your Maine income tax liability.

Notice to Employers and Other Payers

Maine law requires employers and other persons to withhold money from certain payments, most commonly wages, retirement payments and gambling winnings, and remit to Maine Revenue Services for application against the Maine income tax liability of employees and other payees. The amount of withholding must be calculated according to the provisions of Rule No. 803 (See www.maine.gov/revenue/rules) and must constitute a reasonable estimate of Maine income tax due on the receipt of the payment. Amounts withheld must be paid over to Maine Revenue Services on a periodic basis as provided by Title 36 M.R.S. Chapter 827 (§§ 5250 - 5255-B) and Rule No. 803 (18-125 C.M.R., ch. 803).

Employer/Payer Information for Completing Form W-4ME

An employer/payer is required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME, along with a copy of any supporting information provided by the employee/payee, to Maine Revenue Services if:

- A. The employer/payer is required to submit a copy of federal Form W-4 to the Internal Revenue Service either by written notice or by published guidance as required by federal regulation 26 CFR 31.3402(f)(2)-1(g); or
- B. An employee performing personal services in Maine furnishes a Form W-4ME to the employer containing a non-Maine address and, for any reason, claims no Maine income tax is to be withheld. This submission is not required if the employer reasonably expects that the employee will earn annual Maine-source income of less than $5,000 or if the employee is a nonresident working in Maine for no more than 12 days for the calendar year and is, therefore, exempt from Maine income tax withholding.

Submit copies of Form W-4ME directly to the MRS Withholding Unit separately from any other tax filing.

Employers/Payers must complete lines 7 through 10 only if required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME to Maine Revenue Services.

- ✓ Line 7 Enter employer/payer name and business address.
- ✓ Line 8 Enter employer/payer federal identification number (EIN and/or SSN).
- ✓ Line 9 Enter employer/payer contact person who can answer questions about withholding (i.e. human resources person, company officer, accountant, etc.).
- ✓ Line 10 Enter employer/payer contact person's phone number.

Important Information for Employers/Payers

Missing or invalid Forms W-4, W-4P or W-4ME. If any of the circumstances below occur, the employer or payer must withhold as if the employee or payee were single and claiming no allowances. Maine income tax must be withheld at this rate until such time that the employee or payee provides a valid Form W-4ME.

- (1) The employee/payee has not provided a valid, signed Form W-4ME;
- (2) The employee's/payee's Form W-4 or W-4P is determined to be invalid for purposes of federal withholding;
- (3) The Assessor notifies the employer/payer that the employee's/payee's Form W-4ME is invalid; or
- (4) The employee's/payee's Personal Withholding Allowance Variance Certificate has expired, a new variance certificate has not been approved and submitted to the employer/payer and the payee has not provided the payer with a valid Form W-4ME.

Exemptions from withholding Form W-4ME, line 6. Generally, employers/payers must withhold from payments subject to Maine income tax unless an exemption is claimed on line 6.

Federal exemption from withholding (lines 6a and 6b). An employee/payee who is exempt from federal income tax withholding is also exempt from Maine income tax withholding. This includes recipients of periodic retirement payments who are exempt from federal income tax withholding. The employee/payee must check the applicable box on line 6. An employee/payee exempt from federal withholding that wants Maine withholding must leave line 6 blank.

Resident employee exemption from Maine withholding (line 6c). A resident employee who is subject to federal income tax withholding is exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the employee had no Maine tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine tax liability for the current year. The exemption on line 6c expires at the end of each year. If the employee fails to submit a new Form W-4ME for the next calendar year, the employer must begin withholding at the single rate with no allowances.

Withholding from payments to nonresident employees. An employee who is exempt from Maine income tax because of the nontaxable thresholds applicable to nonresidents is not required to complete and submit Form W-4ME; however, an employee becomes subject to Maine income tax withholding immediately upon exceeding a threshold at any time during the year. Because all income earned in Maine is taxable by Maine once a threshold is exceeded, employers should work with affected employees to ensure that Maine withholding is adequate to cover Maine income tax liability for the year. This may require the employee submitting a new Form W-4ME with the employer.

Withholding exemption for periodic retirement payments (line 6d). Recipients of periodic retirement payments as defined by IRC § 3405 that are subject to federal income tax withholding are exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the recipient certifies (by checking the box on line 6d) that he or she had no Maine income tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine income tax liability for the current year. The exemption remains in effect until the recipient submits an updated Form W-4ME.

Exemptions under the Military Spouse's Residency Relief Act (MSRRA). If the box on line 6e is checked, the employer must:

- (1) Ensure that a copy of the military member's Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) is attached, and verify that the assignment location entered on the LES is a location in Maine; and
- (2) Review the employee's military ID to ensure that the date on the ID is not more than four years prior to the date on the employee's Form W-4ME, and that the ID denotes the employee as a current military spouse.

An exemption claimed on line 6e expires at the end of the calendar year. If the employee does not submit a new Maine Form W-4ME, the employer must begin withholding for the first pay period in the following year at the maximum rate (single with one allowance).

See the employee instructions for line 6e above for more information about this exemption.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately ☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse ☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)
Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works	Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.
	Do only one of the following.
	(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

	(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here . . .		4(b)	$

Exempt from withholding	I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 . . . ☐

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____

 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

Veteran Directed Care Program

ATTENTION ALL EMPLOYEES, EMPLOYERS, AND AGENCIES

ARIS Solutions' Veteran Directed Care Program utilizes a submission platform on our website as one means for timesheet submission. We felt it may be helpful to provide clarifying information to address some of the questions we have received.

- The web address to access the new portal is:
arissolutions.org/submit-timesheet
- This change is only applicable to those who had been submitting timesheets via email. Those who send in timesheets via fax, USPS, or via e-timesheets may continue.
- The portal is for timesheet submissions only. Please continue to send invoices, packets, and general correspondence through the email address.
- Submissions may be made by either the employer or the employee.
- All timesheet submissions must be entered under the name of the employee. Entries may not be entered under the name of the employer or veteran.
- Please send only one timesheet per submission.
- Each submission should include a timesheet for only one employee. Submissions containing multiple employees are not permissible.
- There will be no email confirmation. Instead of an email, a unique code will appear on your screen once a timesheet has been successfully submitted.
- The new timesheet portal requires a pass code, but not a log-in. If you have been asked for log-in information, then you have likely arrived at our electronic timesheet option. If you are interested in enrolling in e-timesheets, please reach out to veteran payroll customer service for assistance.
