ARIS Solutions (ARIS), will serve as the Financial Management Service Provider on behalf of the participant and/or employer.

Overview of (Veteran Directed Care)

In this employment model, participants and/or employers select, hire, train, schedule, supervise and manage their own employees. PROGRAM INTEGRITY and FRAUD PREVENTION

Maintaining and improving program integrity is one of the most important aspects of the Veteran Directed Care Program. Program integrity including fraud prevention is critical to sustaining this program model. Participants, authorized representatives, and providers are vital to preventing fraud and maintaining program integrity.

Fraud and abuse with funds from the Veteran's Administration can cost billions of dollars each year, diverting funds that could otherwise be used for additional services or to assist more people that need care. As a participant, authorized representative, care provider or recipient of funds, you must comply with all State and Federal laws and prevent misuse or fraud of any funds within this programs. Honesty and integrity are expected of all who participate in the Veteran Directed Program. (Please refer to the New "Employer/Participant" Handbook for more detail on fraud within the Veteran Directed Care Program)

Definition

Fraud is defined as recklessly or purposefully making false statements or representations to obtain some benefit or payment that you would not be entitled to without those statements or facts. These acts may be committed either for the person's own benefit or for the benefit of someone else. In other words, fraud includes the obtaining of something of value through misrepresentation or concealment of facts.

Examples of Fraud and Abuse Include

- Submitting timesheets for services not actually provided
- Approving/authorizing hours that employees didn't actually work
- Recording more time or stating different times than you actually work
- Changing hours on a timesheet after it has been approved
- Not providing the services the participant needs
- Falsifying a worker's compensation claim
- Falsifying or misrepresentation on applications or documentation
- Billing for services while in the hospital or other care facility
- Submitting twice for the same service
- Requiring an employee to "share" their paycheck with the employer

Results

Fraud is a felony conviction that can lead to substantial penalties, including imprisonment up to ten years, or a fine of up to $1,000 or an amount equal to twice the amount of assistance or benefits wrongfully obtained, or both. If convicted of fraud you may be excluded for a minimum of five years from any employment with a program or facility that receives Medicaid funding.

REPORTING

If you suspect or know of fraud or abuse occurring, it is your duty and responsibility to report this immediately to the Area Agency on Aging and the Veteran's Administration. Or call ARIS Solutions at 866.970.3301 and the proper people will be contacted.

Background Checks Exclusions

1. A misdemeanor conviction against any individual that involves:
 - a. Physical or sexual assault;
 - b. Violence or exploitation;
 - c. Child pornography;

HIPAA EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY PRIVACY INFORMATION AND AGREEMENT

SUMMARY OF HIPAA PRIVACY RULES FOR EMPLOYEES

The Department of Health and Human Services has adopted privacy regulations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). These "Privacy Rules" require most doctors, hospitals and health insurers ("Covered Entities") to develop procedures to limit the use and disclosure of patients' protected health information ("PHI") as well as notify patients of their rights with respect to such information.

In order to comply with the Privacy Rules, each Covered Entity must develop and implement its own privacy policy and procedures for the protection of PHI by April 14, 2003. However, in many ways, these policies will simply reflect the "best practices" for patient privacy and confidentiality with which all health care workers should already be familiar.

Privacy of Patient Information

Although temporary personnel are likely to encounter some variations among privacy policies at different Covered Entities, all the policies should permit them (with a few exceptions) to:

- Disclose PHI to the patient himself (or to a child's parent or guardian).
- PHI may also be disclosed to a person involved in the patient's care, such as an elderly patient's adult child or friend who is acting as interpreter, as long as the patient doesn't object.
- There are few exceptions, such as psychotherapy notes in some states.
- Disclose PHI in accordance with a written patient authorization.
- Use or disclose PHI for purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations.
- Treatment purposes: There are no restrictions on disclosures of PHI for purposes of treating a patient. Medical staff may freely discuss a patient's treatment among themselves.
- Other Purposes: However, disclosures of PHI for purposes of obtaining payment or for administering health care operations should be limited to the "minimum necessary" to accomplish the purpose. For example, although a hospital's billing office may inform a collection agency that "Patient X owes $Y to Doctor Z", it may not disclose the nature of treatment Patient X received.
- Disclose "general directory information" about the patient.
 - A hospital may provide general information about a patient's status (excluding specific medical information) to telephone callers.
- Disclose PHI as required by law, or regarding potential victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, or to avoid a serious threat to health or safety.
 - For example, a hospital may respond to a police inquiry by disclosing that is treated a patient for a gunshot wound, and a doctor or nurse may report an abused child to the proper authorities.

If you are asked to make any disclosures which violate these guidelines, or which do not seem to you like professional "best practices", you should contact ARIS Solutions/VDC Program.

(However, you should be aware that reasonably unavoidable disclosures which are "incidental" to permitted uses of PHI do not violate the Privacy Rules. For example, a hospital does not violate the Privacy Rules if a visitor improperly removes a covered or inward-facing patient chart from its holder and reads it, and a pharmacist may discreetly discuss a prescription with a customer at the pharmacy counter, even though other customers might overhear).

Personal Allowances Worksheet

• Keep for your records.

Allowances approximate tax deductions that may reduce your tax liability. The number of allowances is determined by many factors including, but not limited to, filing status, how many jobs you have, and how many children or dependents that you claim on your income tax return.

Allowances claimed on the Form W-4N are used by your employer or payor to determine the Nebraska state income tax withheld from your wages, pension, or annuity to meet your Nebraska state income tax obligation.

b Enter "1" if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are single and have only one job; • You are single and have only one pension; • You are married, have only one job, and your spouse does not work; or • Your wages from a second job, or your spouse's wages (or the total of both for the year) are $1,500 or less, or you have more than one pension. 	4b
c Enter "1" for your spouse . But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a working spouse, more than one pension or more than one job. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld)	4c

Instructions

Purpose. The Nebraska Withholding Allowance Certificate, Nebraska Form W-4N, was developed due to significant differences between the federal and Nebraska laws regarding standard deductions and because personal exemption credits are allowed on the Nebraska income tax return.

The Nebraska Form W-4N will be used by your employer in conjunction with the Nebraska Circular EN to determine the correct Nebraska income tax withholding. For every federal Form W-4 employers receive, after January 1, 2020 a Nebraska Form W-4N must be completed. If you did not complete a federal Form W-4 prior to January 1, 2020 or beginning January 1, 2020 completed a federal Form W-4 but did not submit a Nebraska Form W-4N, your employer must withhold as if you were single and claimed no withholding allowances.

Nebraska taxpayers that receive pension or annuity payments may also use a Nebraska Form W-4N to determine the correct withholding for those payments. Beginning January 1, 2022, the Nebraska Form W-4N will be used by your pension or annuity payor in conjunction with the Nebraska Circular EN to determine the correct Nebraska income tax withholding when the federal Form W-4P is completed on or after January 1, 2022.

Withholding allowances directly affect how much money is withheld. The amount withheld is reduced for each allowance taken. Depending on your personal circumstances, you may not want to claim every allowance you are eligible to take. If you do not have enough state income tax withheld, you may incur a penalty for underpayment of estimated tax.

There are penalties for not paying enough Nebraska income tax during the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments. You may want to complete the worksheet in the Nebraska Individual Estimated Income Tax Payment Vouchers booklet to compute an estimated tax liability.

For Employees

Complete the Nebraska Form W-4N so your employer can withhold the correct Nebraska income tax from your wage payment. When your personal or financial situation changes, consider completing a new Nebraska Form W-4N.

If you are an employee claiming exemption from withholding, skip lines 1 and 2, write “exempt” on line 3, and sign the form to validate it. An exemption is valid for only 1 year. You must give your employer a new Nebraska Form W-4N by February 15 each year to continue your exemption. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if another person can claim you on their tax return; and your total income exceeds $1,100 and includes more than $350 of unearned income.

If your employer is subject to the special withholding procedures specified in the Nebraska Circular EN, you may be required to submit documentation to your employer to support your claim for exemption from withholding.

For Employers

An employer may withhold an amount that is less than 1.5% of the employee’s taxable wages if the employee provides sufficient documentation to verify that a lesser amount of income tax withholding is justified in the employee’s particular circumstance. Documentation may include:

- Verification of the number of children/dependents;
- Marital status; or
- The amount of itemized deductions.

Without documentation, the employee’s income tax withholding must be set either at 1.5% or within the non-shaded area of the income tax withholding tables in the Nebraska Circular EN for the employee's taxable wage.

Penalties. An employer may be subject to a penalty of up to $1,000 for each employee under-withheld if the employee’s low income tax withholding is not substantiated.

A taxpayer who intentionally claims an excessive number of exemptions is guilty of a Class II misdemeanor.

Any person who willfully attempts to evade the Nebraska income tax is guilty of a Class IV felony.

Any person who willfully fails to withhold, deduct, and truthfully account for and pay over any income tax withheld is guilty of a Class IV felony.

Pensions and Annuities

For periodic payments of employer-provided pensions and annuities, the income tax withholding is determined in the same manner as income tax withholding from wages. Payees with periodic payments from employer-provided pensions and annuities are subject to Nebraska income tax withholding when the payee (recipient) has elected the payor to withhold federal income tax from the payments. Payors must use the same number of allowances and the marital status as claimed by the payee on the Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, Federal Form W-4P, filed with the payor if the federal Form W-4P was completed prior to January 1, 2022. If the payee completes a federal Form W-4P on or after January 1, 2022, a Nebraska Form W-4N must be completed for Nebraska income tax withholding purposes.

Payees that chose not to have federal income tax withheld on the federal Form W-4P may elect to be exempt from withholding income tax for Nebraska on the Nebraska Form W-4N. Payees completing the Nebraska Form W-4N may skip lines 1 and 2 and write “exempt” on line 3 of the Nebraska Form W-4N. If you change the federal Form W-4P to withhold federal income tax, you must complete a new Nebraska Form W-4N to withhold Nebraska income tax.

For pension and annuity payments, the Nebraska Form W-4N exemption stays in effect until you change the federal Form W-4P to withhold federal income tax or you change the Form W-4N to withhold Nebraska income tax without changing the federal Form W-4P to withhold federal income tax.

Note: Nonperiodic payments or eligible rollover distributions are subject to Nebraska income tax to be withheld at a rate of 5% of the distributions and cannot be exempt from income tax withholding.

For nonperiodic payments or eligible rollover distributions subject to either the 10% or 20% federal income tax withholding rate, Nebraska income tax will be withheld at a rate of 5% of the distribution. A taxpayer may request to have additional Nebraska income tax withheld by completing a Nebraska Form W-4N. Do not give a federal Form W-4P to your payor unless you want an additional amount withheld for Nebraska income tax. Also payees who are not required to have federal income tax withheld, may request to have state income tax withheld by completing a Nebraska Form W-4N.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
City or town, state, and ZIP code
(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately
<input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
<input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)
Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200	3(a) $
(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500	3(b) $
Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here		3	$

Step 4: Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here	4(b)	$
(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Exempt from withholding I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____ b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____

c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

Veteran Directed Care Program

ATTENTION ALL EMPLOYEES, EMPLOYERS, AND AGENCIES

ARIS Solutions' Veteran Directed Care Program utilizes a submission platform on our website as one means for timesheet submission. We felt it may be helpful to provide clarifying information to address some of the questions we have received.

- The web address to access the new portal is:
arissolutions.org/submit-timesheet
- This change is only applicable to those who had been submitting timesheets via email. Those who send in timesheets via fax, USPS, or via e-timesheets may continue.
- The portal is for timesheet submissions only. Please continue to send invoices, packets, and general correspondence through the email address.
- Submissions may be made by either the employer or the employee.
- All timesheet submissions must be entered under the name of the employee. Entries may not be entered under the name of the employer or veteran.
- Please send only one timesheet per submission.
- Each submission should include a timesheet for only one employee. Submissions containing multiple employees are not permissible.
- There will be no email confirmation. Instead of an email, a unique code will appear on your screen once a timesheet has been successfully submitted.
- The new timesheet portal requires a pass code, but not a log-in. If you have been asked for log-in information, then you have likely arrived at our electronic timesheet option. If you are interested in enrolling in e-timesheets, please reach out to veteran payroll customer service for assistance.
